

Figure 10-16. Schematic diagram of a custom-designed derrick with a power swivel which is used to minimize the movement of the drill string as the work platform or boat is tossed about by the seas. (Figure provided by the U.S. Naval Facilities Engineering Service Center)